A toddler was shot in the stomach while visiting a child care centre with his family, police say. Police were called to the Family B Child Care Centre on Toronto's Danforth Avenue shortly after 11:30am on Monday. The child was taken to hospital with non-life-threatening injuries and is in stable condition, Toronto police say. Staff said they heard two gunshots in the area and called police. "The child has been shot in the stomach," said Toronto police spokeswoman Const. Jeniffer Jay. "He's doing well in hospital." Police are looking for a car with tan or white paint or grey primer paint. The suspect ran from the scene. There were no other injuries. "The investigation is in its infancy and we have a lot of information to go through," said Jay.
